Bromley

Bromley is situated on the edge of Greater London, and is a gateway to Kent's beautiful Garden of England, so enjoys acres of lovely gardens, parks, lakes and woodlands. It has excellent shopping, with a large shopping centre, more shops in the surrounding streets, and occasional markets. Close by are picturesque Kent villages like Chislehurst, and typical English fairs during the summer months in the surrounding area.

Bromley/Bickley is in a very pleasant and green area, only a short train ride from central London. Founded in 1883 and set in 24 acres of beautiful grounds and playing fields. Bromley is a friendly and happy school, where students can learn and have fun in safety. The school has a strong history in drama, which is incorporated into the Twin programme.
